Issue: Moldova has had an Association Agreement, including a free trade component, with the EU since 2014. The next step in the integration process, accelerated sharply by the Russian invasion of Ukraine in 2022, was granting Moldova a candidate status in June 2022. The experience of the countries of the Western Balkans warns us that it takes a very strong, concentrated, and high-quality effort to make the process towards joining the EU a success.

Goal: To have an early discussion on how to design the process of European integration of the Republic of Moldova to achieve a breakthrough success.
